OFFICE OF FINANCE NO. 6-81

SUBJECT: Career Management Administration

1. The Career Management Staff has been reorganized and staffing now permits assigning a Career Management Officer to specific grade groupings to provide service to MF Careerists including counseling, career development, training, rotations and assignments. The officer so designated will also serve as advisor to the Comparative Evaluation Panels for their assigned grades. The said reorganization provides for the following four Career Management Officers to be responsible for the administration of all phases of career management:
